

Abraham Lincoln's Birthday

By Cameron Bradshaw and Conner Campbell

Why do we celebrate Abraham Lincoln's Birthday? Abraham Lincoln was the 16th president of the United States and he was one of the greatest. He helped abolish slavery and our country would not be the same today if it weren't for him. He was also a great leader and a shining example to the entire world. Lincoln has been an inspiration to everyone that's lived in America. He once said, "Whatever you are, be a good one." This quote has helped millions of people everywhere. So Happy Birthday Lincoln. And thank you for the lessons that you taught the world.
