Trust Land Budget Carryover

We have approximately $8,000-9,000 Trust Land carryover funding. Dave proposed that we spend it on Chromebooks. Michael asked if we had considered using tablets or other devices. Dave pointed out that Chromebooks were inexpensive and easy to use with Google Docs. Cecily explained that Chromebooks were easier to use when it came to typing and testing, but that some departments, like fine arts, do have uses for iPads over Chromebooks. Dave proposed that while most teachers have a need for Chromebooks, that if a teacher chose to use the money for a more appropriate technology for their subject area, that would be fine, too.

Members were contacted by email to vote regarding carryover funds. The vote was unanimously in favor of spending the funds on Chromebooks, which is the greatest teacher need for technology currently.
