Trustlands forecast budget

Based on the student enrollment number (996 this year) so 130k is our budget this year. We will discuss ideas for spending and SIP next month.

Parent teacher conferences/Spartan Rally

Numbers have been down for conferences for a while because of several things (online grading, email, etc). The Spartan rally helped our numbers a bit. Teachers got food truck items from PTO and were grateful. In the future PT conferences will be divided into mini conferences so as to make better use of PT conference time. Teachers will also be available for tutoring during these days. Teachers will send out notes to students who need to stay during these days.

Digital Citizenship/Internet Safety

Netpositive replaced Netsmartz, we had them do an assembly. We also have digital citizenship built into advisory lessons. We discussed what happens when a student misuses the chromebook. The district flags this behavior and sends out an automatic email to the student telling them they have violated and to stop, admin meets with parents/student, and depending on violation of user agreement student may have chromebook taken.

Red Ribbon Week

We have discussed having ‘Fight the new drug’ come and present on pornography addiction. Keith is hesitant on this because of past experience but the assembly will go through an approval process. Red ribbon week is being combined with a student government spirit week in March so they will work together on this. HOPE week is next week.

Career Day

Career day will most likely be in March. Students will listen to four 30 minute presentations on different careers and practice filling out an application. It will last until lunch then students will return to normal classes. Students get a choice for presentation.

Superintendent's SCC Rep Meeting

Melissa Draper will try to attend tentatively
